PREFACE

This third permanent cumulation of the Art Index covers, in general, the period from October 1935 to September 1938. Some one hundred and twenty-eight periodicals, museum bulletins, etc. in English, Dutch, French, German, Italian and Spanish have been indexed. The general subjects coming within the scope of the Art Index are Archeology, Architecture, Ceramics, Decoration and ornament, Graphic arts, Industrial and applied design, Landscape architecture, Painting and Sculpture.

The following titles have merged with other publications or have been discontinued:

American Architect and Architecture
Architecture
Architecte
Baltimore Museum of Art News Record
Metropolitan Museum Studies
Prints
Revue de l'Art Ancien et Moderne

The following titles have been added:

Bollettino d'Arte
Liturgical Arts
New York Public Library
Bulletin
Prints
Worcester Museum Annual

Indexing of Das Schöne Heim, which refused to send copies for indexing, stopped with the December 1936 number.

The inclusive dates for each periodical and information regarding publishers, prices, etc. are given in the List of Periodicals Indexed.

Alice M. Dougan, who has edited the Art Index from its inception in 1929, gave up the editorship in September 1937 when the Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature demanded all her time. She was assisted on the two annual volumes of this permanent volume by Bertha Joel, Margaret Furlong and Jeanette Moore-Smith. Sarah St John with the assistance of Margaret Furlong, who has acted as managing editor throughout the period, edited the 1938 numbers and the cumulation. A compilation of this nature is possible only through the cooperation of so many people that they must of necessity remain anonymous with the exception of Ruth Robbins and Ann Tinkel who have had the responsibility for name forms and Marguerite Vasti who has attended to problems of cumulation and final processes of proof correction.

Suggestions For the Use of The Art Index

Arrangement

Authors and subjects are arranged in one alphabetical file. Under authors and subjects, titles are filed by the first word, initial articles being disregarded. Under personal names titles by an author precede those about him. Subdivisions of a subject are arranged alphabetically or chronologically under the subject, country subdivisions following the form subdivisions.

Collation

Following the title are noted, by abbreviations, the kind of illustrations which accompany the article, also any bibliographies or bibliographical footnotes of importance. Only that collation which pertains to the heading under which an article is listed is given in that entry. For example, under an author's name, the only items given are portraits and bibliography unless the author is the illustrator, while under the subject is given plates, plans, etc., but not the portrait of the author.

Exhibitions

An exhibition of an individual artist is indexed under the artist's name whenever biographical or critical information is given.

Illustrations

Titles of works of art (up to ten) accompanying the text of an article are listed in a note unless they appear in the title of the article or are not descriptive; in this case the number is given. Individual works by an artist, without text, are arranged by titles alphabetically under the subdivision Reproductions under the name of the artist. Titles used are those given in the periodicals; but, when in more than one language, preference is given the English form.

References

See references have been made from various forms of personal names and subject headings to authorized forms. See also references are made from subjects to related subjects.
